THIS IS Los Angeles, looking out from a window of the Ambassador Hotel upon a city of which the beauty and growth multiply tenfold the wonders told of Aladdin's lamp.

Before you leave the railroad station, Los Angeles facts are poured into you.

Twelve hundred thousand population, as shown by the school census. That's Los Angeles.

The most important seaport in the United States next to the port of New York. That's also Los Angeles.

HAVE YOU any manufacturing industries of importance in Los Angeles?

Palm and amaranth shine in Los Angeles' face.

As well have asked Hart, Schaffner and Marx. "Do you make men's clothing?"

Have we any manufacturers? This is the sixth city in the United States in manufactures, and we're only started.

STRETCHED ACROSS the side of a small mountain outside the city you see at night an electric sign, "Hollywoodland."

They offer Los Angeles bargains there. You might perhaps get an acre for $10,000.

When men living here were boys, you could have bought that big hill and all the hills and mountains in sight for half of $10,000.

And if you had offered such a sum the owners would have insured your life, lest you should die before completing the deal.

IS THERE a hill in the Los Angeles boom? Yes, a hill like that of a man catching his breath after a Marathon race.

W. R. Hearst was born in this State, and rode around here on horseback with his father, Senator George Hearst, when a little "horse change" would have bought a million dollars' worth of today's real estate.

Hearst has had his lessons in California land values, and he is buying now, doing his Los Angeles shopping early.

With the beginning of the year the rush to buy will start again. The so-called "hill" is confined to subdivisions that are being laid out as part of the general plan for a city of six millions.

DON'T LAUGH at the six million population proposition. This town will have a population of six millions, of ten millions and more. It is utterly impossible to exaggerate the future of California, or Florida, for they will draw, as a magnet draws a tack, those that have money enough to live where they please, and not in Florida, the cost of living is remarkably low, less than half the cost of decent comfort in New York State, for instance.

THE DESERT shall rejoice, said old Isaiah. He should have seen these "desert" plains and valleys, when water is brought to them.

You come West through so-called desert lands, mountains on either side, in the distance, yellow, sandy looking soil stretching away to the mountains, a few cactus and other plants that live without water, nothing else.

Suddenly, on both sides of the track, appear magnificently beautiful orange groves and vineyards, mile after mile, the trees laden with fruit, the grape vines cut close to the ground to grow next year's fruit bearing vines.

Between the rows of trees you see shallow ditches, a few inches deep. They mean irrigation.

The only difference between those groves and vineyards and the so-called desert just beyond is the difference of water and no water.

WATER DOES for the land what knowledge does for the human thousand of Dante's fellow countrymen from Italy, or other good workers, and these lands will produce anything that you want.

THE DIFFERENCE between water and no water is included in one of W. R. Hearst's lessons in California real estate.

CLASHES AT POLICE IN CHELSEA

State Troops and Inspectors Are Present at Exciting Municipal Voting

Wholesale arrests on suspicion marked the most tumultuous elections in the history of Chelsea and Revere today.

Armed State troops and detectives were on duty at polling places and numerous arguments and fist fights occurred.

Of twenty-one arrested in Chelsea, nine were taken in custody on Chelsea Bridge at the point of a gun by Patrolman Thomas Quigley, brother of Mayor Quigley. Two arrests were made in Revere.

All were discharged by Judge Rosen in the Municipal Court, who ruled that there was not sufficient evidence to justify holding them as suspicious persons.

The supporters of Mayor Thomas A. Doonan of Revere crowd an election-hour surprise when they appeared at the polling place with sticks bearing the name of their candidate. The Mayor was defeated in the primaries by Dr. John E. Continued on Page 7, Column 8.

GIRL MAKES BOY KILLS BLAKE FOR DEATH

Arter Sutor Admits Responsibility for Elevator Killing She Confesses

A story of self-sacrifice for love of a girl was revealed today when it was learned that Miss Fannie Marshall, twenty-five years old, waitress, confessed to Superintendent of Police Crowley she was responsible for the death in the Beacon Trust Building of Thomas McAvoy, a watchman.

James F. McKinney, watchman in the building where the tragedy occurred, and brother of the girl, according to her confession, had previously assumed responsibility and is held for the Grand Jury.

In telling his story to the police McKinney, who is an ex-convict, said that he was living on Oakland road, Lexington, failed to mention the presence of any person other than himself and McAvoy, who was watching in the Compton Building, No. 155 Devonshire street.

McAvoy was found in the elevator of the Beacon Trust Building, his chest crushed by his broken body. The body was found on the floor of the elevator.

CONFESSES HE USED SHOTGUN, "DRINKING" BEING ONLY REASON FOR CRIME

South Sherborn, Dec. 9.—Harold Burke, twenty-six-year-old farmer, was slain in his bed by a nineteen-year-old farmhand early today.

The farmhand, James Leo Mortimer, former State ward, was arrested five hours after the murder as he was trying to buy gasoline for his car.

Young Mortimer confessed freely to the slaying, but declared he had no reason for his act other than he had been drinking. He was in the building when a constable in Medford became suspicious of his actions and questioned him regarding the car which had run out of gas.

Later in Framingham Court, Mortimer pleaded not guilty to a murder charge, before Judge Dexter, who found probable cause and held him without bail for the Middlesex Grand Jury. He was remanded to the East Cambridge Jail.

According to the Medford police, Mortimer is a deserter from the Ninth Tank Corps, Army Base, South Boston.

According to Mortimer's own story, he went to bed some time after his youthful employer retired. He got up again about 1 o'clock and took down a loaded shotgun.

SLAIN WITH SHOTGUN.

Pointing the weapon at Burke's sleeping figure, Mortimer aimed the trigger. Then he replaced the gun, went outside to where the car was put up for the night, and drove off.

In Medford the machine splattered and stopped dead. Mortimer discovered that the gas was exhausted. He set out an foot to a garage, but several minutes before being picked up by the constable.

At a few hours later Miss Marshall walked into the office of Superintendent Crowley and, bursting into tears, declared she feared she had been guilty of a mortal sin.

Home of the street of McKinney, the girl said she first realized that McAvoy was dead, she arrived in Boston a few days ago and arranged to stay with the friend in the Beacon Trust Building. Then she got in touch with McKinney.

CAUGHT BY ELEVATOR.

Miss Marshall said she went to the Beacon Trust Building, she had two drinks in the restaurant with McKinney and McAvoy. Then the line came for McAvoy.

THE MONSTROUS VAMPIRE OF GERMANY

By HAL COFFMAN

FRITZ HAARMANN—GERMANY'S MONSTROUS VAMPIRE—IS ON TRIAL FOR HAVING MURDERED OVER THIRTY PEOPLE—WHOM HE LURED INTO HIS DEN

HE IS POSSESSED OF A SUPER-EGO AND SAYS: "I KNOW THE WHOLE WORLD IS WATCHING ME"

ONCE HIS VICTIM WAS IN "THE MURDER ROOM" THIS HUMAN VAMPIRE WOULD SEIZE HIM BY THE THROAT WITH TEETH AND HANDS

AFTER THEIR DEATH HE CUT UP THEIR BODIES—PUT THEM IN SACKS AND THREW THEM INTO THE RIVER

THEN SOLD THEIR CLOTHING FOR WHATEVER IT WOULD BRING

IN HANOVER—GERMANY—CRIMINALS ARE STILL EXECUTED WITH AN AXE

The strangest character and the most monstrous individual murderer of all time is now on trial at Hanover, Germany, for killing over thirty young men. Even in fiction there has never been anyone to compare with him. Posing as a seller of meat, also as a stool pigeon for the police, he had a dark mysterious soul where he lured his victims. Once he had them inside and the door bolted he sprang at their throats, tearing them with his fingernails and teeth—which gave him the name of "the human vampire." Afterwards he cut up their bodies and dropped them into the river. Sometimes, however, he sold the flesh as beef. Possessed of a super-ego his one delight is his belief that he is attracting the attention of the world. They still behead criminals with an axe in Hanover. But even that means nothing to this strange being—if he can talk about himself to someone who will listen, until the fatal day.

ing his cells in the building where he was employed. Having watched McKinney operate in the room, the girl said she offered to take Maikov up. McKinney, she said, was not in the car when Maikov stepped in and fell back dead. The elevator was moving, and the man's body was caught between it and the wall. The young woman said McKinney refused her to leave the building, saying he would do whatever was necessary. The fact that Maikov was dead, the girl said she went to the fruit room, and in the morning learned of what had happened from the newspapers.

The girl told Superintendent Dwyer she would keep in touch with the police. Inspector Dennessey, consulted with Chief Justice Bolger of the Municipal Court, who suggested the fact he had before him at the time. District Attorney O'Brien instructed the inspector to prepare the case for the Grand Jury. In the meantime the girl is in custody, as is McKinney, whose examination furnished hope for him.

ently moved with his wife and younger son to Andover. Young Mortimer secured work as a farmhand a little more than a month ago and apparently was on the best of terms with his employer. The farmhand was born in Lowell, but at an early age was given in charge of the State and was raised as a State ward. Today Mortimer was arraigned in District Court at Framingham, charged with murder.

Accused Slayer Had Bad Record in Army

James Lee Mortimer, applied for enlistment at the recruiting office here on December 28, 1922. A physical examination by Capt. J. E. Campbell, Medical Corps, revealed he was fifteen pounds underweight. The young man was enlisted under a waiver by Lieut. Michael P. O'Connor, and was assigned to the First Platoon, 5th Tank Company. Lieut. Eugene P. Smith said private Mortimer was continually in trouble.

On January 1 Mortimer deserted. He was captured and served a short sentence. On March 2 he was up for military disobeying orders, and at this time Major Frank T. McCabe interceded in the hope he could set the youth on the right path.

On April 10 Mortimer deserted. At the time of his enlistment he gave the age as eighteen years, and residence as No. 2 Concord place, Lowell. His nearest relative given was a sister, Anne Hoban of Lowell.

State troopers and State detectives, all armed, were on guard at the polling places in Chelsea and Revere. The two men arrested at Revere City Hall by State police were later arraigned in Chelsea Court on a charge of being suspicious persons.

Municipal elections are being conducted in fourteen cities of the State, but with such vigor has the Chelsea campaign been conducted that twenty supervisors, appointed by Governor Cox, are in charge of the election there.

Ten of these supervisors are Republican and ten are Democrats. They were appointed at the request of Mayor Quigley, seeking reelection and his opponent, Alderman Joseph A. Tyrrell.

The majority contest is not the only one, however, that is stirring the Chelsea electorate. Miss Cecile Cohen, a school teacher, is making a determined fight for one of the two berths of alderman at-large.

The other, which constitutes the race again in the Commonwealth to hold elections this year, are Attleboro, Beverly, Chelsea, Everett, Lawrence, Malden, Melrose, Newton, North Adams, Woburn, Worcester and Westfield.

In Attleboro two women are unopposed for election as city clerk and city treasurer.

For the first time in the history of Meuse the voters will elect 11 aldermen, one from each ward and four at large.

One of the Meuse candidates for alderman-at-large is a woman, Mrs. Alice P. Pollard.

The majority contest is between Mayor Paul H. Provande, who seeks a second two-year term, Albert M. Tibbette, former president of the Board of aldermen, and James W. W. Brodie. Tibbette finished second to Provande in a field of five two years ago.

Mayor Lester D. Chisholm of Everett, seeking reelection, is opposed by former Mayor Christopher Harrison.

Malden faces one of the most spirited elections in the city's history, with former Alderman Edward Fall and John D. Dever, former superintendent of schools, seeking election as mayor.

In Melrose a spirited contest between Mayor Michael J. O'Hara, seeking reelection for a second term on the Republican ticket, and Francis P. McKim, state advocate of the Knights of Columbus and Democratic nominee, is the feature of the municipal campaign.

STRAY BULLET WOUNDS PAWTUCKET WATCHMAN

Pawtucket, R. I., Dec. 8.—Joseph McLaughlin of No. 179 Heritage Mill avenue, watchman at the city's filter fields in Eson avenue, is at the Memorial Hospital with a bullet wound in the back of his head. He was struck while sitting in his little shanty by a bullet which came through a panel of the door.

Boys who were shooting birds in the vicinity earlier in the afternoon are suspected in the shooting.

U. S. Women Best Dressed, 'Czarine' Declares

New York, Dec. 8.—Scores of thousands of royal revelers in the palace of Europe were enlivened at Sherry's, where the Monday Night Opera Club gave a reception and dance in honor of the Grand Duchess Cyril, whose husband hopes to be Russian Czar.

Some men kissed her hand and some of the women dropped a curtsey. "Your Highness" were the words spoken by each fair guest upon being presented.

A few hours before the reception the Duchess undertook to solve a cross word puzzle.

"I have always been of the opinion that American women were the best dressed in the world, and after seeing them I am convinced they are the best dressed," she said. "They are certainly the best word in fashion."

A conservative estimate sets the damage at $10,000.

COOLIDGE IMPRESSED BY CHICAGO TEMPLE

Chicago, Dec. 8.—President Coolidge was much impressed on his visit to Chicago by the sight of the towering cross of the Chicago Methodist Temple. It was burned by George W. Dixon, who personally thanked the president for the letter which he sent at the dedication of the temple some time ago. The golden cross of the temple, lit up above the skyscrapers of Chicago's business district, was a pleasure and inspiration to the president, who noticed it a few minutes after his arrival here. Mr. Dixon learned.

ROMANCE OF BIG BUSINESS IN EASTMAN'S GIFTS TO TECH

FRANK W. LOVEJOY, M. I. T., '94, IS 'KEY' TO MYSTERY

Just one of those curious romances of Big Business! The most feasible answer, strange as it may seem, to the question prompted by the mysterious "Mr. Smith's" latest gift of $4,500,000 to Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

To state George Eastman just one of the many who have benefited more than $11,000,000 to the treasury of the institute on the Cambridge bank of the Charles River. Educational circles and folk generally have wondered why of all the thousands of colleges studying the land, the multi-millionaire Kodak manufacturer picked out for the object of his benevolent generosity a place he has only visited thrice.

LOVEJOY THE 'KEY'
Peetrates the veil behind which Tech's good Samaritan has functioned and you will find the figure of Frank W. Lovejoy. The latter still another mystery in his past work.

Mr. Lovejoy is the vice-president of the Eastman Kodak Corporation, upon whose shoulders will fall the mantle of directing head of the many Eastman interests when their founder retires.

Again, Mr. Lovejoy is a graduate of M. I. T., the class of '94. These two facts noted, the native behind these large gifts begins to reveal itself.

Translate that motive into a human equation and the aforementioned romance of big business begins wearing itself.

BEGAN AS CHEMIST
A year after Mr. Lovejoy's graduation from Tech he went to work as a chemist in the Eastman laboratories in Rochester. His untiring devotion and ingenious experiments soon attracted the attention of Eastman.

In a few years Mr. Lovejoy was taken out of the laboratory and put into an executive position. And as the pioneer of photographic methods and the Tech graduate worked side by side. A deep mutual admiration developed.

In time other M. I. T. men joined the Eastman laboratories and achieved noteworthy results. These include Darrow Delaney and James H. Hays.

Appreciative of their work, Eastman became interested in their education source and he made secret inquiries of Tech's financial resources. Suddenly, about ten years ago, even to Mr. Lovejoy's surprise, the Kodak King bestowed a fund of $1,500,000 to Tech to be used in building what is known as the "Educational Group," that alignment of architectural beauty across the River Charles.

Shortly afterwards another gift, $2,500,000, for other buildings. In 1916 he gave $200,000 to found the School of Chemical Engineering Practice, and two years later $400,000 for the departments of chemistry and physics. Then in 1920 came a gift of 5,000 shares of Kodak stock worth at the time about $450 each, but whose value by a reassessment has almost doubled.

In a statement that accompanied the announcement of the $4,500,000 endowment today Mr. Eastman said: PRaise FOR TECH.

"The Massachusetts Institute of Technology is the greatest school of its kind in the world. It has an eminent faculty of scientific men, a splendid body of students and an outstanding board of directors to determine its policies. It is all prepared to begin to make use of these additional funds."

For eight years Mr. Eastman kept his endowment activities in favor of Tech hidden behind the anonymity "Mr. Smith."

Among the things the board of directors would like to do with this latest gift, Everett Ross, treasurer of the Institute, said today, would be:

1. Increase the salaries of professors up to the highest paid by other institutions.
2. Build enough dormitories to house at least 1,000 students.
3. Develop every department, especially chemistry and physics.
4. Establish better facilities for research by graduate students.

Disarmament Parley Is Off
Home, Dec. 9 (A. P.)—The chamber of the League of Nations decided at a private session today to accede to England's request and postpone consideration of the Geneva Peace Protocol and arrangements for a disarmament conference until the March meeting of the council.

SILENCE STRIKE UNBROKEN IN BACK BAY
Allston's house down in the Back Bay Probate Court ordered them to go home and make up the Leon Dana and his wife Anna Dana, who is suing him for unpaid maintenance, contained today late campaign of silence continued six months ago.

In this case a day in the Beacon street, Dr. Dana had taken his meals in the kitchen while his wife takes hers in the dining room. Mrs. Dana's daughter in a previous marriage is still suing with her stepfather. She is Miss Alice Violet Yerkes.

STILL AT SWORD POINTS.
"Alice has made an attempt to speak to me and we have come from court," said Mrs. Dana today. "She is just the same as she was before the hearing. Despite the fact that my daughter has turned against me I still love her. I judge that she will be glad to resume friendly relations with her mother."

"Go back to your father's home," he told her. "Make up with her, she probably thinks more of you than you think she does. The judge said that after two weeks, my daughter has decided on the separate support all instituted by Mrs. Dana."

Miss Yerkes threw the court in an uproar when she testified that her mother tried to ruin her daughter and had accused her of being unfaithful to her stepfather.

READY TO FORGIVE.
I had nothing against Alice, said Mrs. Dana. "I do not love her for the attitude she has taken toward me. I am sure that my husband has an influence over her which she cannot break away from. If she would only talk to me like any other daughter to a mother, then I think I would forgive her. I am sure that it would make a very happy."

HANG WAR HERO KLAN BIBLES AS THOUSANDS GO TO SCHOOL! PRAY AT JAIL NOW WHAT?
Trion, Dec. 8.—Three Klans are causing more discussion, argument, ill-feeling and commotion than this town has experienced in years.

The Bible repays in the book of the school committee, but the locked doors cannot shut out the irritating wither of the girl letters embossed on their covers.

"Presented to the George Sumner Hall School by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

To the troubled school committee, which has to decide what to do with the gift, they are combined symbols of intolerance and supremacy, and troubled by this mingling of emotions the committee meets tomorrow night to vote on their disposition.

"Destroy them!" demand some of the citizens most bitter against the hooded order.

"We cannot destroy holy Bibles," answer the school heads.

"Well, give them back."

"To whom? Who are the Klan men?"

The Bibles were handed to the town authorities by Rev. Almer H. Walker, pastor of the Baptist Church at North Grafton, "on behalf of a Bible society."

The hangman had been smuggled into the jail, despite the watchful eyes of the jailers. The hangman made a last minute plea for the condemned man.

KING DEFENDS BRITISH ACTS IN EGYPT

Delivers Speech From Throne
at Opening of the English Parliament

London, Dec. 8 (A.P.)—King George opened Parliament in state today with a speech from the throne full of important pronouncements on foreign and domestic affairs.

The King opened and read a long message from the throne, in which he demanded for redress following the campaign of hostility against British interests in Egypt and the Sudan on account of the murder of the archbishop.

The government was unable to recommend parliamentary condonation of the Soviet treaties, but, the King added, he desired that "normal intercourse between the two countries shall not be interrupted."

"I follow with deep interest the important deliberations of the House of Commons," said the King. "My Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has proceeded to Rome to act as British representative at the meeting of its council. He is taking the opportunity of this journey to meet the President of France and Italy."

The number of Austrian persons who arrived themselves in their flight from the glittering and crowded world of the opening of Parliament today never has been so great. To the group of ten or twelve Austrian noblemen who have already made their debut here, were added today the Countess of Galloway, who until last October was Miss Phyllis Wendell of New York, and her sister, the Countess of Carnarvon.

CUMMINS SEES EARLY END TO RAIL BOARD

Washington, Dec. 8.—The possibility of settlement of the controversy over the Howell-Buckley bill to abolish the Railroad Labor Board and set up new machinery for adjustment of railroad labor disputes was discussed with President Cummins today by Senator Cummins of Iowa, ranking Republican member of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee.

"It is my hope that through some compromise we may end this controversy," Senator Cummins said. "I am hopeful that an arrangement can be made at this session of Congress that will be satisfactory to all parties."

N. H. GRANGE MASTER OPPOSES 48-HOUR WEEK

Nashua, N. H., Dec. 8.—Protestantism at a forty-eight-hour week law in New Hampshire was opposed today by Herbert N. Sawyer, state master, at the annual session of the New Hampshire State Grange. "The forty-eight-hour week will again come before our Legislature," he said. "And I feel as sure now as two years ago that its enactment would be detrimental to the best interests of the State."

BURNING VESSEL IS ABANDONED BY CREW

Los Angeles, Dec. 8.—The Mexican Steamer Oaxaca, reported off fire off Mazatlan, has been beached for fear of that point and abandoned by its crew of twenty-seven men, according to radio advice. The Oaxaca failed to answer signals from a British ship. All hands are believed to have deserted the burning vessel.

FORMER SUPREME COURT JUSTICE PITNEY DEAD

Washington, Dec. 8.—Former Justice Hubert Pitney of the Supreme Court died early today.

Death occurred in the hours immediately after midnight. Justice Pitney was sixty-six years of age, and retired from the bench because of ill health December 31, 1922.

BUTLER'S LEAVE IS EXTENDED ONE YEAR

Washington, Dec. 8.—President General Smoot, D., Utah, has granted by President Coolidge today an extension of one year of his leave of absence from the Marine Corps to serve as director of public safety of Philadelphia.

She Threw Away Calomel and took Beecham's Pills

"I felt so miserable," said the young woman cashier in a fashionable New Jersey hotel. "A friend suggested calomel and I was about to take it."

"Another friend noticed the calomel on my desk and cautioned me against it. She said her sister took calomel and ate some fruit and the combination 'salivated' her, caused some of her teeth and made her very sick."

"Fearing that my stomach might be in bad condition, I bought a box of Beecham's Pills and took a few. The next day I felt fine and I haven't needed anything during the three weeks since."

COOLIDGE'S AID MAY BE ASKED IN 'RUM REVOLT'

Judge Tells New Jersey Jury
Conspiracy Attempts to Rebellion

Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 8.—The possible need of requesting the President and the Governor to "enforce martial law upon our waters" was the only alternative to "state-wide anarchy," was called to the attention of the Hudson county grand jury today by Supreme Court Justice Minton in his charge concerning the investigation of the bootlegging conspiracy in Wisconsin for which two police officials, nine policemen and the alleged "boss" of the ring have been indicted.

The business conspiracy in this case was not confined to this county or to this State," Justice Minton said. "It is a nationwide conspiracy, a national business, and in effect is nothing less than a rebellion against the Constitution."

"I follow with deep interest the important deliberations of the House of Commons," said the King. "My Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has proceeded to Rome to act as British representative at the meeting of its council. He is taking the opportunity of this journey to meet the President of France and Italy."

The number of Austrian persons who arrived themselves in their flight from the glittering and crowded world of the opening of Parliament today never has been so great. BEBE DANIELS HEADS BILL AT FENWAY

Vivacious Star Seen in Film Entitled "Argentine Love"

"Argentine Love," an entertaining film, is the feature at the Fenway Theatre this week. Bebe Daniels is the star of the production. The supporting program is especially pleasing. There is a unique arrangement of "Follow the Swallow" by the orchestra, as well as a delightful selection of musical numbers. Special, played by Lloyd G. De Castello, at the organ. In addition there is a comedy and the ever-entertaining news reel. Felix the Cat does his share toward making the comedy program a thoroughly enjoyable one. Featured with Miss Daniels in "Argentine Love" is Ricardo Cortez, who fills his role admirably. There is also a prologue to the feature, "In Argentine," sung by Marguerite Porter. The attraction next week will be Thomas Meighan in "Tongues of Flame."

SATURDAY'S TAG DAY FOR XMAS BASKETS

More Volunteers Needed for Big Drive to Swell American's Fund for Needy

To enrich the Boston American Helping Hand Christmas Basket Fund, which is to feed 50,000 destitute persons in Greater Boston, a Santa Claus Tag Day will be conducted next Saturday. Small Santa Claus bangles will be sold by a bevy of pretty girls and women and the proceeds of the sale will be used for impoverished families in their homes at Christmas. Many have already promised to give their services for all or part of the day, knowing that every penny collected will help feed needy children. Students of business, singing, dramatic, dancing and art schools have volunteered to make the Santa Claus Tag Day a success. PRIZES OFFERED. To induce the volunteer workers to make special efforts, two or more fine prizes will be presented to the girls or women turning in the largest individual collection. These gifts include a lady's beautiful traveling bag from the London Hatbox Company and a lady's raincoat as the correctly "bloused" woman is now wearing. The latter was contributed by Mrs. E. W. Temple, place, the proceeds being integrated in the American's 100 per cent. charity. This year is fashioned of flat crepe with gold thread embroidery, making attractive patterns down both front and back. It has cap sleeves and buttons in colors which give it a pleasing finish. The Tag Day will be conducted in Boston proper, Malden, Chelsea, Revere, Everett and Somerville. BRENDEL LIFE OF SHUBERT COMEDY

By NICHOLAS YOUNG
IN no slight matter as the birth of a new musical comedy in the holiday season there is little hope for escape or more than passive interest. In the case of "My Boy Friend" at the Shubert last evening, things took a natural and universal course until El Brendel flopped into the picture. Whatever else may be remarked about "My Boy Friend" Brendel was the life of the party—also its scandalizing joy.

As things go in musical productions, judged by the season's best standards, variety is lacking. This, however, was not the case with Mr. Brendel and his Scandinavian dancers, or his compelling comedy, and almost infinite sight as the "My Boy Friend" picture.

The fun did not run higher than a very low level—but it ran into happy values. Brendel is a comedian of much variety and rare power.

JAVELA BURLESQUE
Trained in the school of vaudeville, where action and response must be instantaneous, there is no slight delay between his arrival on the stage and the roar of his audience. There could be no reason to doubt for a moment the evening alive with possibilities and gave "My Boy Friend" something of a substantial foundation upon which to grow.

Plausibly, "My Boy Friend" turned out to be rather lively burlesque, presented in better dress and with more engaging tones than usually depends upon that form of entertainment. Based on Jack LaRue's very popular character cartoons, "The Bus," this revue in musical settings and away to a good start by building the attention and arousing the enthusiasm of a friendly first night audience.

WELL SUPPORTED
While Mr. Brendel contributed more than his share to whatever glory passed across the footlights, he did have the support of some well-groomed acting talent. Flo Bart, a former partner in vaudeville, and a spirited vaudeville in case at hand, more than held her own in some very excellent company. Will Phillips, a veteran in musical comedy, intelligent, true to his own best form, and Wynn Gibson gave her own charm to "My Boy Friend" in several spirited musical numbers. For novelty the Pasquall Brothers turned in a few examples of "disparate and amazing acrobatic."

"My Boy Friend" possessed everything in material elements that make good musical comedy. There were girls and scenery and costumes, comedians, songbirds and dancing novelties. And the production was led by El Brendel, who needed neither music or chorus girls. He was just a poor Swedish with a funny accent.

SOPHIE TUCKER TAKES KEITH'S AGAIN BY STORM
After an absence of three seasons, Sophie Tucker has returned for a week's stay at Keith's Theatre. And what a reception she received. Accompanying the star were Ted Shapiro and Jack Carroll, two of the best pianists seen at this theatre during this season.

Clack Morrell, new attraction on the circuit, is considered the star of the first of the season. He was called upon for many encores.

When You Feel a Cold Coming On Take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets to work off the cause and to fortify the system against an attack of grip or influenza. A safe and sure remedy. The box has the picture of Dr. W. C. Greer, 300-A-14th.

'THRILLED AND AMAZED' BY JANICE

"Thrilled and amazed at her splendid performance" is the way Helen Hayes, co-star of "Janice Meredith" at the Selwyn Theatre, expressed her appreciation of Marion Davies and "Janice Meredith" after an exciting afternoon spent by the stage star in the dramatic theatre. Helen Hayes, who plays opposite Miss Hayes in "Janice Meredith," accompanied her co-star in the gripping film and was just as enthusiastic. "Marion Davies has reached the supreme heights of photoplay artistry," declared Miss Hayes, who also had stopped breathing rapidly from excitement.

"I did not believe it possible that she could surpass her former successes, and I witnessed her perfect acting in 'Janice Meredith.' I went to the motion picture merely to be entertained, but I left thrilled and amazed at her splendid performance. It is not unusual for people to spend a holiday watching the actors on actresses at the Selwyn Theatre. I have watched her rise to stardom with unusual grace."

"She was adorable in 'Janice Meredith'."

New York: In "The Girl Who Sings" Janice Meredith is her supreme way; she was marvelous. But enough.

Boston Matrons Contribute to Winter's Gayety at Paris

By BETTY ALDEN.
A lot of Boston's matrons are out of town, migrating to Paris in buses.

But those who are spending the winter at the French capital certainly make up a jolly enough crowd. Just the other day I heard that Mrs. A. Lynde Chabaneau had decided to remain on the other side probably until spring, and has taken an apartment in Paris.

It was last spring, I believe, that Mrs. Chabaneau sailed for France with her three little children. The former Vivian Vessell took a house at Versailles and some months ago a new, small apartment made its appearance there.

Mrs. Chabaneau had planned to return to Boston this fall, but changed her plans and is now to be in Paris for the winter, where her husband will join her whenever his business permits.

Those who saw "Why Not"—Adelaide Whitman's useful achievement staged by society some two years ago—will remember Mrs. Chabaneau as the sprightly business woman called "Polly Peters," and some time later she was the dashing "Princess Sonia" of "Duch and Warrance," a Vincent Club offering.

The last named was another example of Mrs. Adelaide H. Whitman (Adelaide Chabaneau-Taylor), who, like Mrs. Chabaneau, is also passing the winter months in Paris. Mrs. Regis Foster and Mrs. John L. Sargent are also domiciled there, and with this quartet of versatile young matrons Boston seems to be very well represented at the French capital this season.

It was in October of three years ago that the daughter of Mrs. William S. Whiting vowed to "see home and stay" young Mrs. Alex Tomes of New York at the Harvard, 12, place.

The ceremonial was an Episcopal Church event, and a very lovely bride, Edith Chabaneau, came with her tall, slim figure and dainty blonde locks.

Among the sextet of bridesmaids there were Mrs. Nellie Pike, Mrs. Anna Sturges, Miss Pike, Miss Wood, who's done such splendid work at the Lincoln Laboratory, and Miss Mary Burr, the spirited daughter of the L. Tucker Burr of Marlborough street. Miss Burr is now, by the way, established in New York, where she has done some exceptionally clever work in the designing and making of pot-roses.

APHROS of Tuscola Park—members of the fashionable set who are planning a specially interesting round of winter sports—providing, of course, that Nature smiles her approval upon their plans.

A member of the committee on sports is Amory S. Carhart, married Miss Barbara Blane of Boston. Mr. Carhart and his companions are lengthening the toboggan slide. Last week work was completed on the outdoor skating rink on the tennis courts in front of the Racquet and Tennis Club, and a series of hockey games will be arranged between a local team and a team from West Point. There is talk also of a carnival, the rink being ideally situated for it.

Since the proposed sale of the Lowell interests in the Park was made known last week, there is reason to believe that Tuscola Park will experience the most brilliant social function it has ever had.

Why Some People Are "Frightened to Death"

YOUR nervous system is the vital force of your body; the force that gives energy to every organ and every muscle. So great is the power of this nerve that a tremendous shock, such as fear, may cause death.

A lower nerve shock will knock the shocks, cause the heart to beat wildly or almost paralyze breathing.

To sustain our vitality we must nourish the nervous system. When we restore lost nerve power we find ourselves filled with new strength.

Nervous, exhausted men and women can quickly regain their nerve power. As they rebuild their nerves they soon see the signs of returning vitality.

Wincarnis gives to the nervous system the very elements they must have to be supplied back to energy. For fifty years this nerve restorative and strength giver has regenerated those who were weak, thin, pale and generally discouraged by the use of Wincarnis.

It is sold for $1.10 by all leading druggists. Doubtless, $1.50. Wincarnis is so effective that only three table-spoonfuls a day need be taken. Try Wincarnis and you will see the difference just a few days will bring.

Society Notes
The dinner and dance which Dr. and Mrs. T. Morris Murray planned to give at their Marlboro street residence November 29 and last night proved to be a success in every respect.

Emma W. Budget of Brookline was present at the dinner dance held in New York the other evening at Pierre's, at which Mrs. Richard T. Dana introduced her daughter, Miss Mary Flaminia Dana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan attended the week-end at their Glen Cove place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lowell Putnam were the guests of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander at last night's meeting of the Holiday Supper Club held at Jerry's in New York. The Grand Duchesse Cyril of Russia, who has just arrived from Europe, was guest of honor at the affair.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond of Gloucester will give a dinner at their Washington residence for the Duchess who is planning visits both to the capital and Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. H. F. Foster, Treasurer of the Commonwealth Avenue West down to Providence for the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Jencks, and Miss Beatrice Partner will be married this evening to Charles Alton Bradstreet at No. 75 Sewall avenue, the bridehouse home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Partner, Mr. Bradstreet takes his bride to live in Rockford, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Chaffinch Taylor had the other day as lunch guests at the Plaza in New York Dr. Alvin Stillman, 2nd, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Blackwell.

INSANITY PLEA FOR PASTOR IN DEATH TRIAL
Alleged Poisoner of Woman's Husband Is Mentally Deficient, Jury Is Told

Mr. Vernon, Ill. Dec. 9 (N.Y.)—The hearing of a plea that the necks of John Bennett and her pastor, the Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, were taken in their trial for the murder of William Bennett, Mrs. Hight's husband.

Special Prosecutor Frank G. Thompson charges Hight bought arsenic and told it to her husband. Nelson Layman, counsel for Hight, pleads that the circuiting preacher is mentally deficient to shut out Hight's confusion.
The charges against Hight are summed up as "Tombstone maligned by gossiping tongues."
That is what her counsel, R. E. Smith, tells the jury of former and working one. His plea is: "Give her death or send her back to her children."
Medical testimony—from physical tests traced Bennett at the mine where he ate his lunch, alleged to have been poisoned a coroner's chemist who analyzed Bennett's vital organs and found arsenic; the physician who testified to a corner; Hight that Bennett might have died either of arsenic or arsenic poisoning, formed the first strand in the rope of fate and circumstance which the State is fashioning.

"LIFER" IS PERMITTED TO GO TO HOSPITAL
Thompson, Mr. Dec. 9—Edgar M. Ward of Randolph, serving a life sentence for the murder of Marie Burrier in 1919, left today in custody of Probation Officer F. Maurice Park for Washington, where he will enter Walter Reed Hospital for medical and surgical treatment.

At the end of three months Ward is to surrender himself to the prison warden and continue his sentence.

Bellows and Rubber Take Place of Vocal Cords

Philadelphia, Dec. 9.—Using a foot bellows instead of his lungs and a bit of stretched rubber in a little box instead of his larynx, Dr. Harvey Fletcher of the Western Electric demonstrated how speech was restricted to persons whose vocal cords had been removed.
The device, Dr. Fletcher said, would prove of great value to persons who had been rendered speechless through loss of their vocal cords. Through its use they would be able, after a little practice, to carry on a normal conversation.

POOR OLD "MIKE" K. O'D. BY ORATORS IN HOUSE

Washington, Dec. 9.—After being banged about for two years at the hands of fervid orators the microphone in the chamber of the House has received its final knockout, and persons wondering the overtones of the Capitol will no longer be startled to hear coming from the rostrum in particular the most eloquent descriptions of deserving projects which the government should finance in various places.
The microphone was placed in the chamber two years ago by a congressional committee. No appropriation to buy it was ever forthcoming.

HOLD M'CURRY AS PASSER OF BAD CHECK

Preacher Protests Vainly When Handed Into the Dock With Common Prisoners
Just over the main matter of the dignity of Breton H. MacCurry, sometimes credited with being the author of the "Lays of the Loquacious," and then some, got all ruffed up the wrong way today.
MacCurry justified the indignity of being thoroughly arrested.

And not only that, he was seized upon a common dock with an ordinary prisoner who has stirred up the law. Breton protested against the indignity, but his protests were in vain.
A deputy breton is charged with passing a bad check on Mark W. Adams, managing director of the American Baptist Association, No. 14 Ashburton place, Special Officer Holmes and O'Neil of the Jay Street station made the arrest.
"What a piker this chap Adams is," MacCurry fumed in the police. "He issued five bad business reverses for $1,500 and one for $305."

"You're not going to put me in there for failing when the dock looked up just ahead. 'You can't go in there like a common criminal'."

But he went in just the same. Chief Justice Bolger continued his case until December 12.

Miss Chermakoff bought the poison in a Washington street drug store where she also wrote three letters, which were clamped tightly in her hand when she was picked up.

HARVARD DROPS 10 BASEBALL OPPONENTS

College baseball was rocked today by the announcement that Harvard had dropped ten colleges from its 1925 baseball schedule, all but one of them New England teams. The Crimson now will play only seven teams with Middlebury, Bates, Middlebury, Massachusetts Agricultural College, Wesleyan, Providence College, Rhode Island State College, and Seton Hall. Seton Hall, located at Orange, N. J., is the only non-New England aggregation dropped.

Harvard will start up against large college teams almost entirely. Twenty-five games have been arranged for next spring.

Notable teams on the schedule are Georgetown, Pennsylvania, the United States Naval Academy, Dartmouth, Columbia, Holy Cross, Marymount, Brown, Princeton, Yale and Catholic University of New York.

Local baseball fans like the announcement, because it promises baseball of a higher caliber. It is predicted that the attendance and spicing will be the largest in the history of the college, as a result.

AND LET ME TELL

FINANCE NEW YORK STOCKS

By B. C. Forbes

A grand total of 317 American companies have improved their dividend distributions this year, records compiled by the writer show. And December has started off as encouragingly as any month of the whole year.

Despite several months of quiet business, 1924's dividend record will stand unmatched. By the end of the year, the number of companies which will have taken favorable dividend action will have reached the 600- mark.

The newspapers reported that when the directors of the St. Louis & San Francisco Railway last week passed a resolution to increase 10 per cent. dividends on the common stock, they cleared their own consciences as signatories that the payers waiting outside could hear the truth. This road has paid no dividend since the organization in 1911, or either the preferred or common stock had the first of last month when a 4 per cent. rate was begun on the preferred. And now the common stock will receive a 10 per cent. dividend on a divided basis.

It is probable that the dividend record of 1924 will be broken in January. Wall Street will be planning with care, for a dividend increase of daily occurrence.

My records show that last month thirty-four industrial and rail companies had increased their dividends. These totals were almost twice as good as the record for the same month of 1923.

The record for the first eleven months of this year may be seen by glancing at this summary:

Month	Dividend Increase	Dividend Decrease	No Change
January	25	5	3
February	48	3	3
March	65	4	3
April	48	3	3
May	58	3	3
June	58	3	3
July	58	3	3
August	58	3	3
September	58	3	3
October	58	3	3
November	58	3	3
Total	416	41	41

Just what from has the bounty of dividends taken? The following table tells the story very briefly:

Category	Dividend Increase	Dividend Decrease	No Change
Industrial	25	5	3
Railroads	48	3	3
Utilities	48	3	3
Insurance	48	3	3
Finance	48	3	3
Transportation	48	3	3
Chemicals	48	3	3
Food	48	3	3
Textiles	48	3	3
Metals	48	3	3
Other	48	3	3

The Chicago Rapid Transit Co. announced yesterday that it had increased its dividend from 42 cents to 45 cents per share. This is the first time since 1911 that the company has increased its dividend. The company's earnings for the year ended September 30, 1924, were $1,000,000, or 45 cents per share. The company's assets are $10,000,000, or 45 cents per share. The company's liabilities are $5,000,000, or 45 cents per share. The company's net worth is $5,000,000, or 45 cents per share.

It is interesting to note that the dividend record of 1924 is the best since 1911. In 1911, only 100 companies increased their dividends. In 1924, 317 companies did so. This is a significant improvement in the dividend record of the country.

Readers of this column have been promised for some time a study of the dividend record of the country since the spring of 1923. This study is now being published in a series of articles. The first article in the series is published in this issue. It is entitled "The Dividend Record of the Country Since the Spring of 1923".
